Mission Statement

The Mission of St. Joseph Catholic School is to develop the whole child through an excellent education that is rooted in gospel values and the traditions of the Catholic Church. We strive to work in partnership with committed families and parishes of North Central Washington to form effective servant leaders and intentional disciples of Christ.

School Philosophy

The philosophy of St. Joseph Catholic School is consistent with the Catholic tradition of the Christian Gospel message. St. Joseph Catholic School is a close community whose members help each other grow spiritually, intellectually, and socially in a caring atmosphere. The school acts in partnership with the parents as first and primary educators of the children. Each child is treated with the dignity and importance bestowed upon him/her by our Creator. While each child is valued as an individual, students are also taught the importance of being responsible, productive, caring members of the broader community.

School History

St. Joseph Catholic School was founded in 1955 and continues to thrive today. St. Joe's currently offers preschool (3 & 4 year old) through 6th grade classes, and has a current enrollment of 185 students, with a goal of 201 students for the 2025-26 school year. SJCS offers multiple academic programs including Religion, Bilingual Pre-k, Multi-lingual Spanish/English Program, Music, P.E., and S.T.R.E.A.M, and multiple before and after school enrichment opportunities such as Folkloric Dance, Band, Choir, Robotics, Math is Cool, & Baking Club.

Middle School Expansion

St. Joseph Catholic School is expanding its curriculum to include middle school. Sixth grade was established in 2024-25, 7th grade was established in 2025-26, and 8th grade will be added in 2026-27, to complete the program.

Job Description

St. Joseph School is looking to hire an 8th grade home room teacher as the school continues its expansion into middle school. The ideal candidate will be an active practicing Catholic and a dedicated educator who is excited at the prospect of working as an integral member of the middle school development team. This will require capacity for flexibility and creative thinking.

Preferred candidates will have 6th-8th grade level certification and experience teaching religion and social studies, though all interested parties are invited to apply.

The school is looking for teachers who utilize current, effective, research-proven strategies to plan, teach, monitor progress and report performance, who use data to drive instructional decisions to increase academic outcomes in all students, and who employ culturally sensitive, responsive, and sustaining practices. The school is seeking a teacher that will adhere to rigorous academic standards and expectations, holding the bar high for all students.

The applicant must respect and be willing to teach the tenets of the Catholic faith and be willing to follow all Diocese of Yakima and St. Joseph Catholic School policies and procedures, and demonstrate commitment to providing and maintaining a welcoming, safe, loving, and nurturing environment, consistent with Gospel values. This teacher must embrace the core components of servant leadership, treating all students, staff, parents, and stakeholders with dignity, compassion and respect in both action and all forms of communication, and maintain a commitment to working positively, professionally, and collaboratively with colleagues, students, parents, and stakeholders toward the mission of the school and Church, fostering faith, excellence, and service.
